HOBART IS NO MORE.

Vice President of the United States
Dies at Paterson.

SICK A LONG TIME.

While His Death Was Not Unsuspected
His Demise Was Sudden—Paterson Shows Much Respect for Her Citizen.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 21.—Vice President Hobart died at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Vice President Hobart had been failing fast since Monday afternoon, although the reports given out at the house were that he was holding his own. At midnight he became unconscious, and at 7 o'clock he had an attack from which he never rallied. His death followed at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Hobart, Dr. Newton, who is a cousin of Mrs. Hobart, and Miss Alice Waddell, the nurse, were at the patient's bedside constantly from the time he became unconscious. At 7:30 o'clock the vice president's private secretary, Mr. Evans, called up the White House by phone and notified President McKinley that Mr. Hobart was dying. At 9 o'clock Mr. Evans communicated again with the president notifying him of his death. Garret A. Hobart, Jr., was also at his father's bedside. Mrs. Hobart bears up well under her great bereavement.

Flags in the city and all public buildings were half mast when the news of the vice president's death became known. Flags on many private buildings and dwellings also hung at half mast. The bell on the city hall tolled at intervals during the forenoon. The county court adjourned in token of respect to the dead vice president. Although the vice president's death had been expected at any time, there were still faint hopes up to the last among his personal friends that he would survive some time to come. Persons who are neighbors and life long friends of the vice president, are deeply affected over his death.

Soon after the news of Mr. Hobart's death was sent over the wires, telegrams of condolence began to arrive at Carroll Hall. Among the first to send words of sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Hobart was President and Mrs. McKinley.

Garrett A. Hobart was eminently successful in both business and politics. His reputation as a man of affairs and one of the shrewdest business men in the country was perhaps greater than his reputation as a political leader and statesman, until his election to the vice presidency three years ago.

Mr. Hobart was born in 1844 at Long Branch, N. J. He left but one child, Garret A. Hobart, Jr., a boy of 14. Fanny, a girl of 23, died in 1895, in Italy while there with her parents.

GLOOM AT WASHINGTON.

The News of the Vice President's Death
Received With Much Sadness.

Washington, Nov. 21.—All flags in Washington are half masted out of respect to the memory of Vice President Hobart. The announcement of his death, while not unexpected, came as a distinct shock and cast a deep gloom over the city, where he was loved and honored. The news was first received at the White House in a private message from Paterson. The flag over the executive mansion was immediately hauled down to half mast and the doors of the mansion were closed to the public. The president was deeply affected by the telegram announcing his colleague's death and at once dispatched a telegram conveying sympathy and consolation of himself and Mrs. McKinley to Mrs. Hobart. In the meantime the sad intelligence had been bulletined by all the newspaper offices and the whole city was soon mourning the loss of the vice president.

Secretary of State Hay, upon whom the succession to the vice presidency now falls, heard the news upon his arrival at the state department and immediately repaired to the White House. The secretary remained with the president 10 minutes. He was visibly affected when he left the White House. He said no arrangements had yet been made, but the president and all members of the cabinet would attend the funeral.

By the death of Mr. Hobart the office of vice president of the United States becomes vacant for the rest of President McKinley's term as the law provides for no succession. A president pro tempore of the senate will be elected by that body, when congress assembles, who will hold the office until March, 1901. By law the successor to the presidency of the United States in the event of a vacancy falls upon the vice president and in the event of the latter's death to the secretary of state, the next being secretary of the treasury then secretary of war and on down through the list of cabinet officers by an act of congress when the death of Vice President Hendricks disclosed the necessity for such a provision.

Senator Frye of Maine is now president pro tempore of the senate. He will call the body to order when it assembles Dec. 4, and will preside until his successor is chosen. That he will succeed himself is generally conceded.

Later the president issued a proclamation announcing the death of Vice President Hobart and eulogizing his great services to the country.

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

Democratic National Committee Discuss the Outline.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Members of the Democratic executive committee held the final meeting of their session at the Sherman House to complete the routine work and for further discussion of an informal outlining of plans for the coming presidential campaign. All members were present. Little remained to be done by the committee and it is expected that an early adjournment will be had. Chairman Johnson of the ways and means committee, reported on the national work as regards the campaign fund showed that $175,000 had been subscribed and $147,000 collected.

Just previous to the calling of the meeting the first button for the campaign of 1900 was passed around among the members and the legend inscribed thereon most favorably commented on. The button, which was sent with the compliments of Former Chairman Har- rity, bore the words: "No foreign alliance, no trusts, no imperialism for the United States." "That's a good platform," remarked Committeeman Clayton of Alabama, "but it ought to have '16 to 1' on it."

The Democratic national executive committee after a brief session adjourned sine die to meet at the call of Vice Chairman Johnson. It was practically agreed among the members that the meetings of the executive body shall be held every 60 days, but no session will probably be held before January.

SLAUGHTERED REBELS.

Colombian Troops Kill 1000 and Wound
Twice That Many.

New York, Nov. 21.—A dispatch to The Herald from Panama says:

Official advices from Bogota dated Nov. 18, report that a terrible battle between the government forces and the revolutionists was fought near Bucaramanga, capitol of the department of Santander, in which the government forces were victorious. It continued two days from noon Nov. 16. More than 1000 rebels were killed and 2000 wounded. About 10,000 men on both sides were engaged. Generals Uribe and Juan Francisco Gomez, prominent leaders of the revolutionists, were both wounded and it is reported that Gen. Solano Pillemezares and General Hernandez were also wounded. The regiments commanded by Generals Holguin and Lujan are reported to have occupied Bucaramanga on Nov. 18. The place has been held by the revolutionists since the civil war of a month ago.

Rev. Marston Sentenced.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 21.—Judge Allen in the United States district court at Cairo, sentenced the Rev. J. Forest Marston to a year and a half in the penitentiary for using the mails for a scheme to defraud. Marston, who was a Baptist preacher at Mount Holly, S. C., in 1892, represented himself to be an agent for the Red Cross society. He traveled over the country lecturing on Cuba, raising funds to provide a home for the poor children who were made orphans by Weyler's cruelty. He pretended to send the money he raised by registered mail to Miss Barton, and he exhibited receipts for these letters, but Miss Barton never received any of the money.

Badly Beaten and Robbed.

Sarcoxie, Mo., Nov. 21.—A young man of 17, giving his name as Haines, was taken from a wheat car on an eastbound train. His head was badly bruised and cut, the skull showing wounds in several places. He says he was robbed of $40 and a gold watch, and beaten unconscious near Carl Junction. His father, who resides at Niagara, was promptly sent for.

H. & C. COLLEGE NOTES.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. C. E. Bullock. Prof. Bullock has taught here for several years and the people think he is all O. K. The young people have decided to have singing instead of so many parties. They have met for several Sunday nights and had fine singing.

Messrs. Denton and V. B. Edge, of Kurten, attended the singing at Mr. J. K. Presnal's and we are sorry to hear that they had a bicycle wreck on the way, but that did not set them back much except they had a long walk home.

There was a large crowd at Sunday school Sunday evening at Wesson, and as the superintendent was absent, Prof. G. O. Buckhaults, the assistant superintendent conducted the Sunday school. Everybody is invited to come out on Sunday evening and help us.

Prof. J. M. Moore and wife visited relatives in this community Sunday.

Misses Nellie Hudspeth and Lillie Nichols visited Mrs. Ruth Drummond Sunday.

Rev. J. C. Mickle visited relatives here for the past week.

Miss Effie Buckhaults went to Wheelock Saturday.

Rev. Goodwin will preach at Wixon Saturday, Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night, also

Rev. E. M. Myers will preach at Wesson the 4th Sunday.

There was singing at Mr. B. B. Black's Sunday night. Those present from other communities were Mr. Ed Black from Wheelock and Prof. G. O. Buckhaults from Kurten. The singing was very good.

Mr. J. A. D. Robinson and family went to Bryan Sunday evening, to the unveiling of the monument of Mr. Williams.

Several of the young men of this neighborhood attended the dance at Mr. and Mrs. Locke's Tuesday night.

Mr. Robert Smith, of Reliance, is attending school at the H. & C. College.

Capt. R. Hudspeth is visiting his granddaughter, Mrs. J. M. Moore, of Kurten, this week.

U. N. A.

It is said that President McKinley will propose legislation against the trusts in his forthcoming message, but it will be difficult for him to impress the country with the sincerity of his attitude. There is a well-grounded belief that the question of trusts and the existence of enormous campaign funds are interwoven. With the chairman of the republican campaign committee defending the trusts, it is not hard to see what effect the McKinley tirade against trusts will have on congress.

Mr. Hanna has issued a call for the republican national committee to meet in Washington in December. In view of those returns from Cuyahoga county, he might have included in the notice, "Please omit flowers."

Drink Mount Vernon Pure Rye at the Exposition saloon.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.

Taylor Conceded a Plurality by Democratic Newspapers.

Louisville, Nov. 21.—The county board of canvassers adjourned late Monday afternoon until tomorrow, after having completed the official count of the ballots cast Nov. 7. The city and county give Taylor a plurality of 3413.

The work of the board Monday was the consideration of ten contested precincts in various parts of the city which had been passed as the count progressed. Five of these were thrown out and five were counted. This resulted in a gain of two members in the legislature by the Democrats. The legislative result in the county now stands one Republican senator, five Republican and three Democratic representatives.

When the county board meets again it will hear arguments on the motion, notice of which was given several days ago by counsel for the Democratic candidates, to throw out the vote of Jefferson county because of alleged intimidation by the state militia.

Democratic newspapers figures now give Taylor a plurality of nearly 2000 in the state. They show that 2489 votes are in contest and that Goebel has a plurality of 937 on the uncontested votes.

The Democratic state campaign committee concedes that Taylor has a majority on the face of the returns, but bases a hope of the election of the Democratic ticket on throwing out the vote of Louisville on account of the alleged interference of the state militia and of Johnson and Knox counties where it is charged tissue ballots were issued. The Kentucky election law plainly provides for a secret ballot and the Republicans admit that they are not as well fortified in the defense of their interests in the Johnson and Knox county cases as might be, but do not credit to any extent the Democratic claim regarding Louisville. In fact, they assert that should Louisville be thrown out on the pretext claimed, they have the assurance that Governor Bradley will back them up in resistance which they say is already planned.

The Goebel managers announce they will not take an appeal from the decision of Judge Jones at Glasgow, where 1198 Nelson county votes, erroneously certified for W. P. Taylor were ordered counted for W. S. Taylor.

SHOT INTO A MOB.

Georgia Sheriff Saves a Prisoner from Being Lynched at Covington.

Covington, Ga., Nov. 21.—A mob of about 75 men attacked the jail here at 11 o'clock last night in an effort to secure William Collins, a white man. Sheriff Anderson in defending the prisoner ordered his deputies to fire upon them. The effects of the shooting is not known, but the sheriff says he saw one man carried off by his companions.

Collins attempted to assault Minnie Kirkus, who lives near the Porterdale mills, several miles from Covington. The mill operatives on being informed of the indignity offered Miss Kirkus formed a mob and set out in pursuit. Collins, however, was arrested by the sheriff at the instance of Miss Kirkus' father before the mob got to him, and lodged in jail here.

Sheriff Anderson, who had been apprised of the mob's intention, had 20 deputies, armed with Winchesters, inside the jail. The leader of the mob on halting before the jail, demanded the keys. This was refused, the sheriff's verdict in the matter being greeted by a volley of shots from his unwelcome visitors.

This was answered by a roar of Winchesters from the jail windows and a fusillade ensued. Seeing that the sheriff was prepared for them the mob departed.

The jail is still strongly guarded.

Steamer Natchez Sinks.

Natchez, Miss., Nov. 21.—The steamer Natchez of the New Orleans Navigation company, running between New Orleans and Grand Lake, while on her way down, struck a hidden obstruction at Ford's Crossing and went down in 12 feet of water. As soon as the boat struck she began to sink and was headed into the shore where she was tied to the bank. Her cargo of cotton can be saved. No lives lost. The boat was valued at $60,000.

Jumped Into Niagara.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 21.—A middle-aged, well dressed man engaged a hack here and was driven to Prospect point, overlooking the falls. He left the carriage, walked directly into the river and passed over the falls. There were several people in the vicinity at the time. There is no clew to the identity of the suicide.

Six Men Dead.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 21.—The dead and wounded from the railroad accident near Humboldt have been brought to this city. The six dead men are now in the city morgue, and the four seriously injured are at the city hospital. Two of those in the hospital are in a precarious condition and one of them at least will probably die.

Shooting at Decatur.

Decatur, Tex., Nov. 21.—Charles Rector was shot to death here and John Rector, his brother, was seriously wounded. The shooting is charged to Watt Daves, a horse trader, who was immediately arrested.

Lady Salisbury Dead.

London, Nov. 21.—Lady Salisbury died Monday afternoon at the Hatfield house. Her health recently appeared to be improving and her demise was unexpected.

Quartette Club.

The Quartette Club met with Mr. Ed Saunders Monday evening. As the Club is going to give "Chimes of Normandy" some time in January, it is hoped that all the members will be present at the next meeting. The rule has been made that if members are absent four consecutive times, their names shall be dropped from the list of members, and others elected in their places.

The program was thoroughly enjoyed. Each selection was rendered with much ease and grace. The Club adjourned, after spending a most enjoyable evening, to meet next Monday evening with Mrs. T. R. Batte.

Darkest Russia.

Will be seen at the opera house on next Friday night. This play is one that has proven its worth as an entertainer during the past half dozen years or more that it has been before the public, and it has lost none of its beauties of scene and story by repeated presentation all over the land. The company of the present year is pronounced the best yet seen in the play, as the effort has been made to give it the best presentation this season the play has ever had. All of the scenic dress is carried and we will be given the performance in the most finished manner by a company of players, especially chosen for their fitness to the requirements of this play. It is a play that should call out all our local playgoers who delight in the better order of the drama.

Ordination of Rev. G. A. Foster

Last Sunday at Providence church, near Bryan, Rev. G. A. Foster was ordained into the ministry of the Baptist church.

The ordination sermon was preached by Rev. R. D. Wilson, at 11 a. m. Dr. F. M. Law examined the candidate, Rev. S. R. McClung prayed for divine blessings upon the ministry of the new preacher, and Rev. J. M. Bullock delivered the charge.

The bad weather prevented a large attendance, although a fair congregation from different communities attended.

A good dinner was spread between 12 and 1 o'clock, the ordination proper was in the afternoon, and after these exercises the remainder of the afternoon was spent in song.

Rev. Foster has been called to the pastorate of the Minter Springs Baptist church, with meeting days first Sunday and Saturday night before, in each month.

Hulls $4.00 a Ton.

The Eagle reporter saw an order from C. A. Taft, superintendent Well's Fargo Express Company, to Agent Lomax at Bryan, asking him to procure for each married employe, or those single employes who have a mother or sister dependent upon them, a turkey, a can of oysters and a bunch of celery for Thanksgiving dinner. This order is given to the Company's agents at their thousands of offices throughout the country, and is doubtless quite highly appreciated in thousands of homes.

Miss Fannie Parker and her visiting friend, Miss Cairns, were tendered an entertainment by Mrs. Council and Mrs. Banks, at College, last evening. Among those present from Bryan were Misses Parker and Cairns, Miss Mae Cole, Miss Mattie Tabor, Miss Williams, Miss Ethel Cavitt and Miss Marie Adams.

THREE MEN KILLED.

Two Deputy Marshals and a Merchant
Slain in the Nation.

Antlers, I. T., Nov. 21.—Near Doaks-ville, 30 miles east of Antlers, Deputy United States Marshals James S. Ennis and Doog Everridge and John Kelly, a Goodland merchant, were killed by two men named Bishop and Frey, whom the officers were trying to arrest for removmorgaged property.

Bishop some time since was sent to an insane asylum, and while confined there, his wife mortgaged their cattle and other belongings to Kelly, she leaving for Kansas. When Bishop was released recently he claimed he had been drugged and put into an asylum and declared he did not intend to be robbed of his property.

Still a Mystery.

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Six months ago a stranger committed suicide in this city. While the body was at the morgue it was identified as that of Aaron Wolfsohn of St. Louis. The local agent of the New York Life Insurance company announced that Aaron Wolfsohn had taken out a $10,000 life insurance policy some time before his death. He identified the body. About a week ago the local agent received a check for $10,000 from New York and handed it over to Public Administrator Kellogg in payment of Wolfsohn's policy. The check was cashed by the administrator. The agent of the insurance company has received a telegram from New York instructing him to stop payment on the check as the company has knowledge of Aaron Wolfsohn being alive. This leaves the suicide still a mystery.

Schooner Wrecked.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—The schooner Maple Leaf was brought into port at Stanley harbor by the tug Snowstorm. She was found tossing in the waves abreast of New Glasgow a complete wreck above decks. Her captain, Robinson of Lehmington, who is also her owner, and his brother, Evan Robinson, had both been drowned and the two surviving members of the crew, David Adams and J. A. McIntosh, had a terrible experience. The storm struck them 25 miles north of Cleveland Friday night. Capt. Robinson was engaged to be married soon.

General Miles at Tucson.

Tucson, A. T., Nov. 21.—When Gen. Miles arrived here on a special train there were over 5000 people at the depot to meet him. The address of welcome by Colonel Morgan was responded to by General Miles on the platform of the car. The party was then escorted to the opera house by the Arizona pioneers and a vast concourse of people where over 2000 children received him. The city was illuminated in the evening and a public reception given to the general. The party left for Galveston and New Orleans, thence to Washington.

Population vs. Depopulation.

San Antonio, Nov. 21.—A few days ago Lieutenant Franklin, a San Antonio boy, who is in charge of one of the government tinclads, cabled his family briefly thus: "Shelled a burg yesterday and populated the other world by several. Will be home before long." That night a bright-eyed baby girl came into the home of Lieutenant Franklin and the family physician briefly broke the news thus: "You have done well, but your wife has done better. It's a girl. All's well."

Killed the Whole Flock.

Denver, Nov. 21.—A special from Craig, Colo., says last week 3000 sheep belonging to the Geddes Sheep company, were driven from Wyoming into Routt county to a range northwest of Craig. Last Saturday 50 masked men captured the herders and proceeded to kill the entire flock. The herders were warned not to bring any more sheep into Colorado and released. These are the first sheep that have been brought into this section for several years.

Fought in a Cemetery.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 21.—William Clubs, a plate glass worker, recently from Missouri, shot James Horn, a hod carrier, through the breast. The men met in the city cemetery and fought with stones and guns. Horn applied for a divorce Saturday, claiming Clubs had ruined his home. Clubs was arrested. Horn may die.

Whipple Barracks to Be Repaired.

Prescott, A. T., Nov. 21.—A private telegram from President A. M. Murphy of the Santa Fe Prescott and Phoenix railway, who is in the east, states that the secretary of war has given orders to Whipple barracks rehabilitated and put in good order at once for use as a military post.

Must Be Paid Together.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that an executor of trusts should not pay the legacy taxes on life interests for a given period annually. The whole tax on such interests must be paid at one time.

Will Not Resign.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Secretary Long's attention was called to the reports that he intended to resign from the cabinet. Without hesitation the secretary said that he had no such intention.

Yellow Fever at Vicksburg.

Vicksburg, Miss., Nov. 21.—Alberta Johnson, white, aged 4 years, was Monday pronounced to have yellow fever. The sick child came from Jackson Nov. 9. She is convalescing.

Given Fifteen Years.

Stephenville, Tex., Nov. 21.—The jury in the Harry Williams murder case returned a verdict of guilty and assessed his punishment at 15 years in the penitentiary.

HE NEEDED NO HOME.

Dewey Deeds Away His Gift from the American People.

DEEDED TO HIS WIFE

The Admiral Is Severely Criticized for Such an Act by Many Persons. His Right to Transfer Is Not Questioned.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Admiral Geo. Dewey formally transferred to his wife the title of ownership to the house at 1747 Rhode Island avenue and contents, constituting a gift to him made by the people of this country.

Contributors to the Dewey home fund are very, very angry and are rushing into print to say that if such disposition of the home had ever been dreamed of by the admiral's admirers there would not have been money enough contributed to purchase a chicken coop or a dog kennel.

Here are some of the expressions: "The American people presented this home to Admiral Dewey and to no other person, expecting him to retain it in his own name as long as he shall live. It may be indelicate to say more, but Hobson, we know, kissed himself out of existence in two days, which shows how easy it may be for an American hero to forfeit the respect of his fellow countrymen."

It may be said that those who did not contribute have no kick coming, but they are kicking harder, if possible, than anybody else. They are roasting the admiral and say that he has disappointed the whole country.

Mrs. Dewey is already very rich and has homes to throw at the birds, and nobody seems to understand why the admiral was in such haste to part with the magnificent present which came from the nation.

Of course the admiral's legal right to dispose of his home to suit himself is beyond challenge, but the contributors are saying that they did not intend remotely to expand the McLean fortunes through Admiral Dewey or anybody else.

Young George Dewey seems to be left in the cold all along the line. It will be the part of wisdom for the admiral to avoid reading the papers in this neighborhood for several days if he wants to miss some scathing criticism.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Man and a Boy Held Up Ten Men in Oklahoma.

Guthrie, O. T., Nov. 21.—At Dixie, a small town in Pawnee county, a man and 18-year-old boy with red handkerchiefs tied over their faces rode into town, dismounted went into S. F. Bunn & Co's store and compelled 10 men in the store to hold up their hands while they robbed the cash drawer of $50, selected $150 worth of clothing, silver, jewelry, etc., packed them in grain sacks and threw them over their horses. Mounting, they compelled the crowd to march before them 150 yards, then firing several shots they rode off.

The man was armed with a Winchester and the boy with a small rifle. They took their time selecting goods and were in the store fully 15 minutes, compelling several customers who arrived to join the row with hands up.

Smuggled Pearls Seized.

New York, Nov. 21.—Ten thousand smuggled pearls of all sizes, some imitation and some genuine gems, were taken to the custom house Monday and spread out in Collector Bidwell's office. Their value is estimated at $50,000. The pearls were seized from Francois Bock, a dealer in jewels and gems of Providence. R. I. Bock arrived on the French liner Bretagne, but preceding him came a cable message to the customs officials telling that the Providence man had pearls of great price in his possession. To the inspector Bock declared he had nothing dutiable.

Democratic Committee Meeting.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The Democratic executive committee with Chairman J. K. Jones in the chair, spent most of Monday in a room in the Sherman house, discussing matters pertaining to organization, ways and means and the administrative affairs of the organization. The committee will meet again today and it is expected will get through with the business on hand before night. Nothing was said about the meeting of the national committee, but it is the belief of most of the committeemen that the full committee will be called for Feb. 23, in Washington, and that the national Democratic convention will be held the latter part of May or the first part of June.

President's Coming Message.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Those who are guessing the contents of the president's message to congress say it will recommend the retention of the Philippines, building the Nicaragua canal, enlarging the navy, giving Porto Rico territorial government, constructing a cable from the Pacific coast to the Philippines and granting the Cubans freedom whenever it becomes practicable.

Crew from the Charleston.

Manila, Nov. 21.—The United States gunboat Helena has arrived at Cavite with the crew of the United States cruiser Charleston, which was wrecked early in the month on a reef off the northwest coast of Luzon. All the men are well.

NEWS FROM LADYSMITH.

Reports of Two Great Battles Not Mentioned in Official Dispatches.

London, Nov. 21.—The latest direct news from Ladysmith, dated Thursday, Nov. 16 and Friday, Nov. 17, strangely conflict with reiterated reports of "tremendous battles and great British victories" on Wednesday and Thursday. Neither of the messages above referred to, though dispatched on days following the date of the alleged fights, mention any great engagements or Boer defeats. On the contrary, both distinctly state that beyond a false alarm on Tuesday evening and a little increased shelling on Thursday and Friday, causing little damage, everything was perfectly quiet and the garrison chafing under enforced inactivity.

Nevertheless, special dispatches from Estcourt enlarge on the reported battles and insist that the Boers received a more terrible loss on Wednesday than any previous fight. According to these circumstantial accounts the Boers attempted to reach the north end of Ladysmith with a large force, but were unable to make headway against the fire of the British riflemen and Maxims. Later, it is added, the British force worked round the Boer flank, causing the latter to withdraw under the deadly fusillade with exceedingly heavy losses. A large number of dead and wounded are said to have been left on the field and a number of prisoners captured. The British losses are said to have been trivial. Of course, reliable dispatches corroborative of the above may have been censored or captured by native runners.

Dispatches from Ladysmith reporting that there was an ample supply of ammunition there have seemingly set at rest the point on which there was much diversity of opinion.

Apparently the British commander at Ladysmith believes General Joubert has gone south, leaving only a force sufficient to prevent the garrison from sallying out, and there is a disposition in some quarters to think General Joubert possibly invented the story with the object of inducing General White to make a serious attack or relax precautions so as to permit the Boers to seize grounds vital to the defense of the town.

Reports from Durban say there are rumors there that the Boers are preparing to break camp and withdraw from the investment of Ladysmith.

A FAMILY AFFAIR.

Death of Lady Salisbury Changes Programme for Emperor William.

London, Nov. 21.—Lord Salisbury's sudden bereavement in the death of Lady Salisbury, to whom touching tributes of respect are paid in the local journals, will bring an end to consultations between the two governments which had been planned and will convert the emperor's visit into a strictly family affair. As it began with a family dinner party at the Windsor, so it will end as an exchange of affectionate greetings between two powerful courts, but there can hardly fail to be a strong reflex influence upon each nation.

Meanwhile the war in South Africa for which England is generally believed to have obtained a free hand in advance from the German emperor, is dragging on in the dark, but there is no longer any public anxiety here over the silence maintained respecting Ladysmith, Kimberley or Estcourt. A strong reaction has set in against depression which prevailed after the capture of Carleton's battalions and public confidence has reached a stage where reverse is considered out of the question. With the fresh reinforcements arriving at Cape Town, more than half the army corp is now on the ground and two transports have been ordered to Durban with fusiliers and riflemen.

The relief column, when strengthened, can hardly be prepared to advance from Estcourt before the opening of another week, but the Ladysmith garrison is clearly secured and the Boer artillery fire is no longer dreaded.

There is also a fresh record for Baden-Powell's good generalship at Mafeking, and there are indications that the Free State forces will soon be driven across the frontier from Cape Colony. Gen. Buller has rapidly disposed his forces as they have arrived at the Cape and has been enabled without delay to strengthen every exposed point and set in motion two relief columns.

The British are now beginning in earnest, after the Boers have scattered their forces, missed two chances for a successful invasion of Lower Natal and neglected to capture the western border garrisons. It will be a campaign in which 80,000 British troops have been carried 6000 miles, and fully 20,000 provincial auxiliaries are employed.

Fight Near Estcourt.

Durban, Natal, Monday, Nov. 20.—Seven hundred Boers from Weenen took up a strong position at Highlands, 13 miles south of Estcourt, on Saturday, occupying Turner's farm, northeast of Mooi river. Major Thronycroft with a detachment of mounted infantry and Estcourt carabineers engaged the Boers, killing three, including the commander. The Boers in withdrawing took 200 head of cattle captured at the Turner's farm. The main Boer force south of Estcourt, is reported to have retired.

Ten Ships Ashore.

Norfolk, Nov. 21.—According to reports brought in 10 ships are ashore in the Straits of Magellan. The steamship Kurdistan, Captain Littlehale, reported six and the Endless, Captain Milton, reported four.
